Buy American Goods Only!

If every patriotic American will purchase American goods only for his consumption he will lessen the disastrous effects of the Free-trade German Tariff Bill. THE LEDGER invites all to join in such a movement, and to sign the following pledge:

I hereby pledge myself to buy American goods only, whether of the farm, mine or factory, and to use my influence to have others do the same.

Discouraged Arkansas Farmers Will Quit Cultivating Cotton.

This can hardly be a "Republican campaign lie," for it is taken from The Courier Journal:

"The extremely low prices at which cotton is selling at present in the South, trip. Tickets good 20 days. and in Arkansas in particular, will bring disaster to many of the farming classes. Interviews held with about fifty farmers and cotton planters of the vicinity sprrounding Little Rock developed in several instances an unfortunate state of affairs. One planter who lives thirty miles below here had just disposed of his year's labor, consisting of thirteen bales of 450 pounds each, receiving therefor 5 cents per pound, or $292 50, which was the ruling price of Wednesday's market. He said: "I have a mortgage on my farm of $300. I raised only about half enough meat for my family. I have got sugar and coffee to buy, besides other absolute necessaries, not to mention clothing for my wife and six children, and have two hired hands to pay out of this $292 50. How am I going to do it? I also owe a doctor's bill of $48, and was depending on my cotton to carry me through," and tears rolled down the sunburnt face of the old farmer, which he brushed away with his sleeve.

"This is only one instance. There are thousands of others in this state whose Hill visited her son Ellsworth Truitt the condition is a great deal worse than this one. Several of the planters talked with Miss Lulu, the bright little daughter of said that they would not save seed for W. S. Tully, is again confined to her next year's planting, saying they would room by sickness. not grow a stalk of the staple another year, but intended to devote their attention to stock raising and other products out of which they could make a living."

In a unsolicited letter (June 29, 1894.) she writes: About 9 or 10 years ago

I was broken down in health and suffered from extreme nervousness, and severe neuralgic pains afflicted different parts of my body-sometimes the dreadful pain would be in my eyes and head, sometimes in my hand and often in my shoulders and neck. I took many remedies, but found none like Brown's Iron Bitters. I have used a few bottles every year since. I often praise it to others."
